captured at an early hour yesterday morning by the police -There is very little talk about gas on the streets. The excitement seems to have been lulled, but the matter will be settled next week. —The membership of the New Memphis Jockey Club-house is nearly filled and Col. Montgomery will have a house warming in a short time. -This is not the only point on the river at which a bridge is contem-plated. A bill has been introduced into Congress to charter a company to build one at Natchez. The whole company now playing at the People's Theater will go out to Estival Park to night. Dick Cummings and Jack Burke will have a sparring exhibition of five rounds.

-It is lively to at some light will be thrown on the recent Bennett tragedy in the replevin suit soon to come up before Justice Coleman A large number of witnesses have been summoned.

-Memorial services in honor of the late Dr. Leopold Zurz of Berlin were held at the Jewish Temple yesterday evening, when an eloquent tribute was paid to his memory by Rabbi

-The APPRAL has received from Honck "Devoted Apple," "Suppos-ing," "Some Day" and "O 'e Mama," the loveliest of the songs rendered so exquisitely last night by the Kellogg Concert Company.

-License to marry were issued yes terday to John Smith and Ella Yoody, lesber, Geo. C. Harris and Mrs. Tamer Williams, James Hammond and Fannie Hinds.

-The ghost of ex Chairman Smith refuses to be inid. It still haunts the County Court. The papers upon which a contest will be based were filed in the County Court yesterday, and the matter will probably come up next Monday. Mr. Smith is now in North Caroline, and was not present when the court mel this week.

-Two unfortunates, Anna and Margaret Harman, are at the station-house penulless, helpless and friendless and anxious to get to Chattaneoga. A subscription has been started for them by Arriv at on house officials who usually drain their own polity revenue on such occasions, but a sufficient amount had not been ruled at dar best night.

—The Greenlaw family out on Pop-lar street boulevard, had a high old time yesterday. Greenlaw, a colored man, and his wife, have been in the habit of "jawing" each other every day for weeks, and vesterday there was a fight in which the entire family joined. Brickbats and clubs were extensively used. The dispute will be adjudicated before Jus ice Coleman to-day.

-At a called meeting of the Board of Managers of the Society for Preven-tion of Cruelty to Animals. held yesterday, it was resolved that this society is in favor of prosecuting parties engaged in pigeon shooting for sport, it being unlawful and cruel; and that the action of this society be published in the morning papers to give warning to offenders that they will be prosecuted as the law provides.

-President Hadden is in need of rest. He insists in taking upon himself all the little details of the government and now he finds himself called upon to answer questions and attend to hundreds of little things which could be handled by the policemen or gar-bage cart drivers. The strain is constant and intense and in spite of the President's geniality is rapidly making him an old man. He should go to the sea shore for two or three months.

-The Women's Exchange desire to call the attention of the public to their large stock of hand and machine made underwear. These goods are all custom made, and offered at exceed-ingly low prices. The stock comprises gowns, children's drawers, waists, aprons, dresses, etc., and ladies waiss, aprons, dresses, etc., and mades chemise, gowns, drawers, skirts, etc. Special orders executed where parties desire to furnish their own material. The Exchange also desires to call spec al attention to many of their cainties in the culinary department, having on hand at all times superior cakes, pies, charlotte russe, beaten biscuit, chicken salad and excellent home-made jellies, pickles and pre-serves. Prov. A. L. Riggs, principal of the Santee Normal Training School, Santee Agency, Neb., was in the city yester-day, a guest of Prof. Steele of the Le Moyne Institute. Mr. Riggs has spent his life in the work in which he is now ongaged, just as his father before him The elder Mr. Riggs went out to Nebraska in 1837, under the auspices of the American Board of Missions, and initiated the work of educating the Indian, devoting part of his time with his son's assistance, to the formulation of the Sioux language, and the his example, and all have been work-ers in the field which his son, the subject of this paragraph, has cultivated with special assiduity. Of the scope of Prof. Riggs's work, and the success that has followed upon it, an official circular says: "The Santee Normal Training School, now under the charge of the Ame ican Missionary Associa-tion, was definitely started fifteen years ago, in 1870, though its beginnings were still back of that. It was established for the purpose of raising up teachers, preachers, interpreters, and business men for the Dakota or Sioux nation. In raising the standard of higher education for the Indian, our progress has necessarily been slow We have had to plant the very idea of the thing in the Indian mind, and carefully tend its growth. And now others are sharing with us the fruit of these labors. Considering the difficulties to be overcome, our best hope have been realized in the number of our pupils who are or have been en gaged in responsible positions as teachers, preachers, or government clerks. But still more than this, we find our success in the revolution that has taken place in the Indian mind, now anxiously seeking for educational ad-

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet aleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub swakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to teste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the beet known remedy for diarrhosa, whether srising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five 319 Main Street, Memphis, Tenn.

WE offer to MERCHANTN ONLY the largest and best stock of Boots and Shoes we have ever brought to this market, and which cannot be surpassed in quality and styles by any house in this or any other city. In addition to a complete line of Eastern made goods, including the CELLBEATER GOODBAR & CO. BROGG AMS, we hardle a large and select stock of Custom-made Goods for Men. Women, Misses and Children. We carry a number of the best makes in the country, in every variety and style, and among them the well known Men's Calf Heots and Shoes manufactured by Geo. Hocker for our Spring Trade. We also carry a choice line of Ladies' and Misses' Custom Kid, Gost and Calf Goods, manufactured by Krippendorf, Dittman & Co. We invite the trade to examine our stock before buying elsewhere, and we guarantee everything we sell to give satisfaction.

TO THE TRADE. Notwithstanding one of our com-petitors publishes a letter from Seo. Hocker stating "he has not sold us calf boots for spring trade," THE FACT IS, we have these goods now in store, which we offer to the trade at as low prices as they can be found elsewhere. We guarantee them to be the GENUINE Geo. Hocker boots, and adapted to the present season's trade. Respectfully yours.
